

Knowing merely that Amanda Caroline Cronin goes by the title 'the longest legs in Belgravia' might mean you miss the most interesting thing about her: her utterly youthful spirit and joyful take on life. Socialite and model? Yes – but beneath the 'forever young' exterior lies an intelligent businesswoman. Amanda is CEO of Amanda Caroline Skincare which launched in 2022. Her business has skyrocketed and has recently launched in Fenwick's in the UK.

It's impossible to be anything but upbeat in her company. Full of energy, warmth, compassion, enthusiasm and a natural curiosity which makes her as happy in the company of a 20-something ingénue, the 'grande dames' of Knightsbridge or the cream of London fashion, she has an eclectic love of art, a wide and loyal network of remarkable friends and a true spirit of adventure.

Never one to shy away from the spotlight, Amanda will soon be gracing screens as part of the highly anticipated Real Housewives of London, the UK's first city-based entry into the iconic global franchise. She'll be bringing her signature sparkle (and Belgravia charm) to the cast when the show premieres later this year.

Home for Amanda is a stunning Belgravia Georgian townhouse she shares with her beloved art graduate daughter, Sofia, and lively miniature poodle, Monty. Check out her Instagram feed for a taste of Amanda's life, loves and interests.
