

De-Graft Mensah is an experienced presenter making waves in the broadcast industry. A presenter on CBBC's 'Newsround', he has been the champion of and told incredible stories to the UK's children. Other projects include a documentary for BBC 'File on 4' and the BBC Radio 1Extra podcast 'If You Don't Know', which has been credited for being a safe space for Black topical conversation and current affairs, whilst still being entertaining.

Outside of the news world, De-Graft has contributed to print fashion and music magazines including NOTION and PAUSE, fronted educational films and presented awards including The Diana Award, where the Duke of Sussex was a special guest.
